

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

VOL. XXVI.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1904.

NO. 68.

WORLD'S FAIR

Lunch Baskets AND SUIT CASES

We offer for the first time in Hopkinsville a lot of Japan

-TRAVELING CASES-

Made of strong, flexible willow. Very durable and of feather weight. Made regular suit case shape, with bleached leather straps and handle. A very neat and inexpensive Lunch Basket or Suit Case. Comes in 18, 20, and 22 inch size. At $1.15 and $1.50. If you go to the fair you'll need one.

J. H. ANDERSON & CO.

Light Driving Harness.

We have an Elegant line of Light Driving Harness. If you want something Strictly First-Class, look through our line--$12.50 to $27.50. Also a heavy, very strong and substantial

Hand Made Harness

At $13.50 to $15.00.

Can save you money on cheap machine harness, our prices ranging from $5.00 to $10.00. Will also make some close prices on heavy

Wagon Harness, * Collars, Bridles, Saddles, &c., &c.

Come and see what we have to offer you. We sell

BUGGIES

Cheaper than anybody. You will be convinced when you get our prices. Come and let us show you through.

F. A. Yost & Co.,
207 South Main St.

BALLOON RACE

One Contestant Fails To Get Headed East.

Prize Won By Geo. C. Tomlinson's Balloon Says Late Report.

St. Louis, Aug. 27.—George C. Tomlinson, of Syracuse, Carl Meyers of Frankfort, N. Y., contestants for the $5,000 prize offered by the Louisiana Purchase exposition to the aeronaut who comes nearest reaching the Washington monument at Washington, D. C. made successful ascensions this evening. The balloons headed due West, exactly in the opposite direction of the goal, and in thirty minutes had disappeared from view.

Meyers Drops Out.

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—Prof. Carl Meyers, the aeronaut, who started in a race from the World's Fair grounds yesterday afternoon for the Washington monument, and whose balloon landed near St. Charles last night returned to the city today. Prof. Meyers said he landed where he did because he feared he would be unable to catch an upper air current that would take him east. After leaving the World's Fair grounds the balloon was carried in a northwesterly direction. Neither he nor the balloon was injured, the professor said.

Tomlinson Starts East And Wins.

Avon, Ill., Aug. 28.—A balloon, supposed to be from St. Louis en route to Washington, passed over Avon today, going in an easterly direction, and dropped a card attached to a bun. The card told in the potato patch of W. H. Case. Mr. Case found the card, on which had been written, "Will kindly please write and tell of balloon passing town or city? George C. Tomlinson, World's Fair Grounds, care W. E. Smith."

The balloon was seen by many citizens of Avon. It is estimated that it was more than a mile high and going at the rate of twenty miles an hour.

102 YEARS OLD.

Claiborne Buckner, Oldest Person in County, Dead.

Claiborne Buckner, colored, probably the oldest man in this part of Kentucky, if not in the State, died at his home in this city, last Thursday night. He claimed to be 102 years of age. Until he became entangled with old age, he was a servant in the family of Mrs. Virginia Latham. He was one of the good old time "darkies" of ante bellum days, who was respected by all who knew him.

FIGHT FOR ROOSEVELT.

Clarksville Blacks Resent Burlesque By Circus Clowns.

Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 25.—During a performance of a circus here yesterday afternoon one of the clowns was giving a burlesque on President Roosevelt when two negro men in the crowd became offended and took the matter up. Hot words led to blows, and a negro named T. Martin was badly beaten up by one of the clowns. Two clowns and two negroes were placed under arrest by the police for fighting.

Trap Gun Kills Negro Burglar.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 26.—The store of R. F. Lacey, where a burglar was recently caught in a bear trap, was the scene of a tragedy last night. A negro, Will Smith, being shot to death by a trap gun, placed for burglars. The store had been burglarized several times recently; the burglars, evading the bear trap. A spring gun was set last night. The negro had on clothes stolen from the store Tuesday night.

FIGHT RESUMED

And Japs Cause Another Russian Retreat.

Port Arthur Has Not Been Taken And More Men Sent By Japan.

London, Aug. 28.—According to a dispatch of to-day's date to the Central News from Liao Yang, an artillery battle has been in progress since 8 o'clock this morning near Liao Yang. The Russian main position, the dispatch says, is what was formerly the outpost line of the Liao Yang garrison.

The fight at Anshanshan resulted in a Russian retreat, after continuing all day and all night. The Russians lost heavily. The retreat, it is stated, was in an orderly manner, and the order to retreat was a great disappointment to the troops, who were fighting valiantly against odds, according to reports from Russian sources. It is a general belief that a big battle will be fought at Liao Yang. Japan is said to be sending reinforcements to Port Arthur, and 22,000 men have arrived at Dairen in transports in the past two weeks. The progress being made at Port Arthur is slow, but the besieging force is reported to have captured another important fort.

Will Hold the Ship.

Tientsin, Aug. 26.—Formal notification has been sent the Chinese government that the Japanese will not accede to the demand of China for the return of the Russian destroyer Hoshitani, which was seized by Japanese destroyers in the harbor of Chefoo on Aug. 12.

CZAR GENEROUS

To His People to Celebrate His Son's Birth.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 23.—Emperor Nicholas's manifesto on the birth of an heir to the throne, announces the following reforms:

Abolishes corporal punishment among the rural classes and for first offense among the sea and land forces.

Remits arrears due the state for the purchases of land and other direct imposts.

Sets apart $1,500,000 from the state funds for the purpose of forming an inalienable fund for the benefit of landless people of Finland.

Grants amnesty to those Finlanders who have emigrated without authorization.

Remits the fines imposed upon the rural and urban communes of Finland which refused to submit to military conscription in 1902 and 1903.

Remits the fines imposed upon the Jewish communes in the cases of Jews avoiding military service.

Provides for a general reduction in sentences for common law offenses. A general amnesty is accorded in the case of all political offenses with the exception of those in which murder has been done.

Small Pox at Pembroke.

Two new cases of smallpox have developed since our last report, says the Pembroke Journal. They are members of the family of Matt Killebrew, colored, who lives in a cabin on the Jameson farm, near Kenner's creek. They contracted the disease by contact with the Parish family, who brought it here from Casky.

The patients are being guarded in their homes as closely as possible to prevent their coming in contact with others. Marshal Jackson has been appointed guard and has charge of the patients.

Hopkinsville Winners.

Mr. J. B. Harrison first prize on his White Wyandottes at the Clarksville Stock Show last week, beating an exhibit of Finkel birds. His coop of fowls was way ahead of anything in the show and attracted much attention.

No Cut Sales.

We have no "Cut Sales," but will guarantee to sell goods as cheap as any house in Hopkinsville. A large stock to select from. We invite you to call at once and inspect our goods.

T. M. JONES.

Main St. - Hopkinsville, Ky.

The very latest and most wonderful of modern optical instruments now installed in the optical department of M. D. KELLY, Graduate Scientific Optometrist.

This is one of the many old hand methods, formerly employed.

ANNUAL SESSION.

The State Sunday School Association Meeting at Henderson.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 26.—The thirty-ninth annual convention of the State Sunday School Association began in St. Paul's Episcopal church, with more than four hundred delegates in attendance.

The service was conducted by Rev. Henry H. Sweets, of Louisville, and K. M. Hopkins, of Anchorage. The address of welcome was delivered by John W. Lockett, of this city. The response on behalf of the delegates was made by Prof. H. K. Taylor, of Beechmont. General Secretary E. A. Fox, of Louisville, gave an instructive lecture.

ALL THE RAILROADS

Now Have Home Phones In Their Offices.

The Home Telephone Co yesterday received an order to put an instrument in the joint office of the Illinois Central and Tennessee Central railroads. There has been some delay in getting this order through the proper channels. Their number is 1424. The L. & N. was connected several weeks ago. This gives the Home Company connection with every railroad in the city. Their superior service is enabling them to gain ground rapidly. No city in the south has service equal to that furnished by the Home Company.

TENNESSEE CENTRAL

Will Have Freight Agent Located Here Half His Time.

Mr. D. C. Lawhon, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Tennessee Central Road, is in town looking after the interest of his company. It is Mr. Lawhon's duty to work up as large a business as possible for his road to handle, both freight and passenger. In this he has been very successful on that part of the road running from Nashville to Harrison, Tenn. From Harrison the Tennessee Central runs several excursions annually to Nashville. They are known as Business Men's Excursions and the extremely low rate in force enables the merchants to go to Nashville to buy their fall and winter stocks. One of the aims of Mr. Lawhon's present stay in Hopkinsville is to look into the matter of running excursions from this place to Nashville, and so far he has been given every encouragement by the business men and by those who would a sight-seeing go. The limit of the excursion ticket is usually four or five days.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Lawhon has instructions from his company to spend two or three days of each week in Hopkinsville waiting on our merchants. This practically gives Hopkinsville her own soliciting man and it is hoped that the shipping public will show its appreciation in a most substantial way.

A QUESTION OF CONSCIENCE.

BY JAMES HARVEY SMITH.

It is almost impossible to explain why a man of intelligence should exchange ease for discomfort and plenty for privation. It is admitted that the only reason why one should toil is the prospect of future rest. To simply secure enough food to stay the stomach and clothing to cover the body need not require more than a day's work in a week, and see what a simple shelter will shield us from the season's changes.

But we are nine parts luxury and only one of necessity. There must be curtains and carpets to shut out air and catch dust; ornamented walls and pictures to lull them; gewgaws and gimcracks without number. Expenses increase with revenue, and the goal of rest and contentment perpetually recedes.

I have noticed that women are not worried in such a situation. Their entire life is a state of nervous unrest and they do not care to change it. Man is the savage animal; he is perpetually recurring to barbarism. He loves to go into solitude and live with the beasts. There comes upon him at times the passion to kill and destroy. He lays on the ground, wades through swamps, courts danger and exposure, and hugs the disagreeable side of nature. Then he returns to civilization, resumes his formal garb, and relapses into discontent.

Perhaps it was for these reasons that I abandoned a good business in the east and went west. From Vermont to Idaho was a far cry 15 years ago, and I had no more excuse for selecting the little town within the shadow of the mountains than a chance look at a railway map.

It was a mere hamlet of less than 300 souls, but, being on the spur of a railroad, was a shipping point for hides and wool and ore and had a number of respectable shops and trades. With these people, however, I had no desire for affiliation. I did not intend to be a hermit, but I had the desire to live apart from my fellow men for a time at least.

To that end I took up a claim three miles from town. It was an exceptionally fine piece of arable land for that region, and there I built a comfortable house of six rooms, stout, with thick walls to withstand the winter's cold. The household goods I had brought from the east furnished it simply but comfortably, and here I settled down to a peaceful, lonely life.

I planted a good portion of my claim with hardy fruit trees, and on a half acre garden raised enough vegetables to keep the table well supplied during the summer and stock the cellar for winter. My wife had her flower garden, and I set out plants and foliage around the house. I did not intend that solitude should deprive us of any creature comforts, and I had not made such a revolution in my household affairs without my wife's consent. She may have wondered, but she made no objections. In the Vermont town where we were married she was a belle and noted for her gaudy, but she relinquished her advantages without an apparent pang. Perhaps it was only a woman's natural acquiescence and her primitive knowledge that in time the fit would pass from me and I would pine for the busy-burly of the world as I had for its seclusion.

It was in our third year that the incident occurred that sent me back to civilization. Our little girl, our only child, was then two years old, and that was another reason why my wife was content.

The winter set in early that year and with great rigor, and by the first of December the thermometer registered below zero every day. Fortunately we had an ample supply of fuel, plenty of provisions, and lots of reading matter, and for a month we lived a life of indolent ease. Then it began to snow, at first intermittently and then in a steady fall until there was at least three feet on the level. This was followed by a thaw, which packed the snow, and then cold weather set in anew.

It was now the middle of January, and just while I was congratulating myself on the easy way in which we were getting through the winter, Amy, our little girl, was taken ill.

At the beginning of winter I had sold my horse as being too much bother to care for, so I tramped to town and brought back the doctor in his cutter. This was a remarkable man, Dr. Morton. In the practical knowledge he must have been at the head of his profession. He was almost the only man in town with whom I had friendly intercourse, and I was amazed to find that he possessed a well stocked library, was cognizant of the latest discoveries in medicine, and, above all, had that masterful air that goes so far toward the success of doctor or divine. When I once hinted that he was hiding his light under a bushel, he laughed and asked me why I wanted to know. It was his whim, as mine.

He saw Amy and pronounced the case malignant, sore throat with diphtheritic symptoms.

"You had better bring her to town," said he.

"Why?" I asked, shortly. "There is no more comfortable house in town than this."

"No," he assented, with a lift of his eye; "but there are more people in case you need aid."

"Then I would not get it," I retorted. "Everybody is afraid of diphtheria—I don't blame them. For mother and I will act as nurses. Can't you write out detailed instructions?"

He did so and left the necessary medicines. The next day he paid another visit and said Amy was improving, and the next day all danger was past. He told us that treatment to continue and left us.

Four nights later my wife complained of a sore throat. My heart gave a great jump of alarm. It was nearly ten o'clock and Amy was sleeping quietly in her crib. Outside it was clear and starlight, but the cold was intense.

"Let me look down your throat," I said.

There was no doubt of it. The diphtheritic spots were there. She saw the news in my face.

"I suspected it," she said, quietly, and with a woman's self-restraint. "I am so sorry you will have to go for Dr. Morton. I will wrap up my throat in ice bands, such as he prescribed for Amy. You will be back in two hours anyhow."

I lost no time in words, and in five minutes was on my way to the town. I could see the few twinkling lights of the houses, as the town lay lower down the valley, and there was no danger of losing my way, although there was no path.

Snow covered everything in sight and the crust was frozen solid. The temperature was 20 below zero, but there was no wind, and the air was like wine. This peculiar weather of the high north-west is a mystery to residents of the middle states. Well wrapped and keeping in motion, it has no terrors for the healthy, and they thrive on it.

I kept in motion you may be sure; indeed, I kept on a dog trot, in less than 30 minutes I was in the doctor's study.

He was fully dressed and on the point of going out, but I did not at once grasp the significance of his appearance.

"Just in time," I gasped.

He listened to my story, and then questioned me minutely until I was in a nervous agony.

"Come and judge for yourself," I cried at length.

"We are wasting time. Get out your cutter; you can put up your horse in my barn and stay all night."

"I have another engagement three miles west," he said, gravely.

"But my wife—"

"Is a patient, and so is this man who has met with an accident, and he has applied first. I can relieve, although I may not save his life."

"And meanwhile my wife will die?"

"Not necessarily, if you follow my directions. Now, listen to me attentively. Here is a powder which you will dissolve in a half pint of lukewarm water, and use as a gargle. These pellets are to be taken two every half hour, and with this" he put a small vial in my hand—"you must swallow the throat as far down as you can reach, using this brush. Now hurry home as fast as you can."

Something in his manner alarmed me exceedingly.

"Is it dangerous?" I asked.

"Very," he answered, bluntly.

"From your description your wife must have had the symptoms at least 24 hours, but underrated their importance, or perhaps did not wish to alarm you. In this disease time is the most important element of the cure, and every moment is precious. I know of no horse that you can conveniently borrow or hire, and I cannot lend you mine, but you are a fast walker. If you do not linger there is little doubt that you can check the disease until I get there, which will be to-morrow morning. Now, go!"

While talking he had made the remedies into a bundle and slipped them into my pocket, and now I was off like a shot.

I could not see my horse, even when I was clear of the town, but I could locate it by the same instinct that guides the hunter through the forest and the pioneer across the prairie. This much I had learned in my three years' residence, and I would have run all the way home, but here a new obstacle arose.

The sky had become overcast during the few minutes I had been housed with the doctor, and there was even now a spit of snow in the air, the forerunner of a mountain storm. I recognized that there was a case where more haste was decidedly less speed, since deviation from the direct route meant not only delay but death. Yet time was precious.

I hurried up the slight incline, the snow every moment thickening and now the wind began to blow the snow in swirls. People in the eastern and middle states who call every violent snowstorm a "blizzard" do not know what they are talking about. In a real blizzard the wind blows in no particular direction, but seems to come from every point of the compass and also up and down. The eyes are blinded, it is difficult to breathe, and all sense of locality is lost.

Fortunately this was not a fully developed blizzard, or I should never have lived to tell this tale, but it was severe enough to fill me with apprehension, and I breathed a sigh of satisfaction when I came to a huge boulder that cropped up on the plain, and I knew that I was in the right path and less than a mile from home.

Just as I left the shelter of the boulder I fell over something on the ground, and before I could rise a hand clutched my coat. It was a man almost covered with snow. He rose to his knees, still holding to my coat, and in a voice faint and almost inhuman cried: "Stranger, for the love of God, help me out of this."

"The road is straight before you to the town," I said, trying to pluck away from him. "Rest under the lee of this rock and then push on."

"I can hardly move," he moaned, rising to his feet with great difficulty. "My clean coat—walked 20 miles since three o'clock—I'm chilled to the bone."

"Follow me then to my house," I said, with rising impatience at the delay.

As I strode forward he caught me again and walked by my side quite briskly for a dozen steps, and then fell back again like a dog.

"Heavens, man!" I cried, giving him a shake. "I am in urgent haste. I cannot carry you—you must keep up."

"I'm doing the best I can," he replied through his chattering teeth, and even through the storm I could see his wan face shrink with pain. "Don't be too hard on me, pardner; I'd do as much for you."

"I know you would; but this is a matter of life and death."

"It is for me—sure."

He gave another lurch and this time fell on the ground.

I was in despair. The man was a rough looking miner. I had never seen him before, and he was nothing to me except a human being, one of a billion. It would be necessary fairly to drag him to my house, and that would require at least an hour, even if my strength did not give out. Meanwhile what would happen to my wife? The warning words of the doctor stood out before me as if written in letters of fire.

Never was man placed in a worse predicament. If I left this man here he would surely die, and I reached home so much as a minute late my wife might die. There passed through my mind with the rapidity of lightning every tale I had ever heard of engineers sticking to the locomotive going to certain destruction in the effort to save the passengers in the coaches; the captains who stood on deck and went down with the ship while the boats carried away the passengers; the men who led forlorn hopes in battle or sieges; the men who leaped into the chasm to save Rome; the men and women who ministered to plague-stricken cities and died from the scourge; every one who died from devotion to duty.

These men and women left me, women and children behind them to suffer, while the world applauded the acts of heroism. But what is the applause of the world save empty sound? A statue here and there, a line in history's pages, or maybe a notice in a newspaper, and that is all.

Who chronicles the sorrow of the heart-wrung and perhaps impoverished dependents of the forgotten heroes? Who gives them a thought while gazing on the statue or tomb?

And yet—it is simple human nature to succor the distressed. There is not one case in a thousand of honest poverty; improvidence and vice are the parents of beggary and want, but who can calmly dissect the cause when hunger appeals? Who can stop to inquire into the character when he is struggling in the rapids?

These opposite views presented themselves to me as the man lay at my feet, and occupied but a minute.

I made a step away from him and he cried in agony:

"Pardner, you ain't going to leave me here to die?"

Again I hesitated, and then made my final resolve.

You have heard the argument and you know the situation.

You know what you would have done in my position.

Well, that is what I did.—Chicago Tribune.

SOME DANGEROUS FOODS.

Dire Effects Which Are Said to Follow the Use of These Things.

Take a drink of water, and typhoid states at you, says the American Echo.

Drink fresh milk, and you will get tuberculosis.

Drink soup and get Bright's disease.

If you eat you encourage an affinity for apoplexy.

Fish may give you floating kidneys, and lobsters may make you feel crabby.

Eat vegetables and weaken your system.

Desserts, puddings and pies will make you feel drowsy, and create a tendency to paresis.

Drink whisky and brandy and get the jim-jams.

Enjoy cigarettes and die early. Cigars will give you catarrh and a tobacco heart.

Drink coffee and you will obtain nervous prostration.

Drink wine and get the gout.

Beer will make you sleepy and cocoon fat.

What a trouble it is to live!

In order to be entirely healthy one must eat nothing, never drink anything, leave smoking alone and, by the way, don't breathe unless you have the air properly sterilized with carbolic acid, camphor and vinegar. Would not this be a life of bliss? Oh, goodness, what a blessing.

To Discourage Suicides.

In Japan a favorite method of committing suicide is to throw one's self over a waterfall. Police are stationed at several waterfalls adjacent to the cities. Near one of them is a conspicuous sign, bearing these words: "Do not drown yourself here! Intending suicides are warned that Heaven disapproves of the utilization of this waterfall for the purpose. This is certified on the best priestly authority, and serious consequences in the hereafter are guaranteed. To drown here is also forbidden by the authorities."—London Tit-Bits.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Jas. H. Skarry

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTURY COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Our Expenses Are Small, We Can and Will

Save You Money

—ON—

Watches, Jewelry and Diamonds.

Get our prices before buying. Repairing a Specialty. Spectacles accurately and scientifically fitted. Eyes examined free. We guarantee satisfaction.

JAS. H. SKARRY,

The Ninth Street Jeweler and Optician.

The Lyon County Fair,

Sept. 14, 15, 16 and 17,

Eddyville, Kentucky.

You can leave Hopkinsville in the morning at 6:40, spend a delightful day and return at night at 10:25. HALF FARE. Gate fee 25c, Children 15c. The Paducah Band will furnish music. The "Fair Hop" will be on Friday night, the 16th, at the President's residence, "Mineral Mound." You are invited without further notice.

Do You Take Quinine?

It's 10 to 1 you do if you are a victim of malaria.

Don't Do It. It's Dangerous.

We'll admit it will cure malaria, but it leaves almost deadly after effects.

HERBINE

Is purely vegetable and absolutely guaranteed to cure malaria, sick headache, biliousness, and all stomach, kidney and liver complaints.

TRY IT TO-DAY.

50 Cents a Bottle. All Druggists.

Bethel - College,

(INCORPORATED.)

RUSSELLVILLE, - KENTUCKY.

Collegiate, Classical and Scientific Courses. Academic Department for those who cannot meet entrance requirements. Able Faculty, Thorough Instruction. Library and Reading room. Laboratory equal to all demands. Beautiful Campus of 30 Acres, Athletic Field, New Gymnasium, Tennis Courts, Croquet grounds. Buildings contain all modern improvements, electric lights, hot air heating, water supply and baths. Special attention to boarding department. Tuition free to ministers' sons and licentiates. Expenses moderate. Next session opens Sept. 1, 1904. For illustrated catalogue and information, address

WM. H. HARRISON, President.

The Nashville American

The South's Leading Publication for Nearly a Century.
DAILY! SUNDAY! WEEKLY!

KEEP POSTED ON

The Russo-Japanese War.
The Panama Canal.
The Presidential Campaign.
The Most Complete Local News.
The Most Complete State News.
Alabama State News.
Kentucky State News.
Mississippi State News.
A good newspaper is an absolute necessity.

$85,500.00 CASH PRIZE CONTEST.

Subscribers of The American will participate in the distribution of $85,500.00 in 1891 Cash Prizes.

To be given to those making the nearest correct estimate of the total paid attendance at the St. Louis World's Fair now in progress.

To nearest correct estimate $25,000

To 2nd nearest correct estimate 10,000

To 3rd nearest correct estimate 5,000

To 4th nearest correct estimate 2,500

To 5th nearest correct estimate 1,500

To 6th nearest correct estimate 1,000

And $40,000 in 1891 cash prizes, making a total of $85,500. This contest closes October 15, 1891.

THE WEEKLY AMERICAN—

one year and six months $2.50

THE SUNDAY AMERICAN—

one year and six months $2.50

THE DAILY AMERICAN—

one year and six months $2.50

THE DAILY AMERICAN—

one year and six months $2.50

Subscribers who write for sample containing all particulars of this great contest.

THE NASHVILLE AMERICAN,

NASHVILLE, TENN.

DON'T GO IT

BLIND

when buying Life Insurance. A search with OPEN EYES will satisfy you that the policies of this company contain SPECIAL and PECULIAR advantages not COMBINED in the policies of other companies.

Mutual Benefit

Life Insurance Co.

OF NEWARK, NEW JERSEY.

Specimen Policy Furnished on Application.

W. W. DENNIS & CO.,

STATE AGENTS.

906 WEST MAIN, LOUISVILLE, KY.

WALLACE & MOORE, AGTS., Hopkinsville, Ky.

E & THRR CO

If you are going

NORTH OR EAST

Travel via the "EVANSVILLE ROUTE," E. A. T. H. and C. & E. I. the best equipped and most direct line to Chicago, and all points reached via Chicago.

Inquiries regarding rates, time, etc., addressed to representative agents below will receive prompt and courteous attention.

F. P. Jeffries, G. P. & T. A., Evansville, Ind.
S. Rogers, General Agent, Nashville, Tenn.
Bruce Jeffries, T. P. A., Atlanta, Ga.

New Chicago Terminal

For The

"Evansville Route."

(E. & T. E. and C. & E. I.)

All passenger trains via the above lines, now arrive at and depart from the new LaSalle St. Station at Chicago, located at Van Buren, LaSalle and Sherman Sts. This is in the heart of the business district, and is the only station in Chicago on the Union Elevated Loop, where cars may be taken to any other station or to any portion of the city or suburbs.

D. H. HILLMAN,

G. P. & T. A., E. & T. H.

W. W. GRAY,

Tonsorial Artist.

West Seventh street, Eld Building.

Keep clean towels and everything fresh. Give us a call.

Farm For Rent.

For particulars apply to

W. W. Gray, Tonsorial Artist.

West Seventh street, Eld Building.

Keep clean towels and everything fresh. Give us a call.

Farm For Rent.

For particulars apply to

W. W. Gray, Tonsorial Artist.

Lame Back
Stiff Joints
Contracted Cords

These afflictions have made thousands of life long cripples. Thousands of cripples have been cured permanently by the use of the best and most reliable of all family remedies.

Hamlin's
WIZARD
OIL

Penetrates the Pores of the Skin
Reaches the Seat of the Trouble
Drives out the Pain
Cures the Disease

Why not try it? It can do for you what it has done for others.

C. S. Berrell, London, Tex., writes: "I suffered for years with Lame Back caused from inflammation of the lumbar vertebrae. I could not straighten up and at times could not turn. I had Hamlin's Wizard Oil. It cured me and I feel better than I have in thirty years."

John Ogden, Wilkes, Cal., writes: "I had Rheumatism in my hand so badly that the joints became stiff and I had not been able to close the hand in two years. A few applications of Hamlin's Wizard Oil relieved the Contractions of the Cords and I have since had entire use of my hand."

There is only one Wizard Oil—Hamlin's—name blown in the bottle. Signature "Hamlin Bros." on wrapper. Take no substitute. 50c. and $1.00.

HAMLIN'S COUGH BALSAM

Heals the Lungs, Wards off Consumption, 25c. per bottle.

Hamlin's Blood and Liver Pills

For Torpid Liver and Constipation, 25c.

AUNT DINAH'S HERB TEA

Induces Sleep, Refreshing Scent, 25c.

For Sale and Recommended by

R. C. HARDWICK,

Hopkinsville, Ky.

The Talk of Christian

County.

It consists of three strands laid spirally together, each strand being made up of 15 wires twisted together, and its construction does not, therefore, differ greatly from that of wire ropes made to day.

Pompeii was buried A. D. 79, 1,825 years ago, but how long wire ropes had then been known it is impossible to tell, though, judging by the knowledge shown in the construction, it may be safely concluded that they had been known for a considerable time.

As to the use of rope tramways, it is said that they were in use as early as 1644.

HEARSE NOT SEEN AT NIGHT

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

ROPE TRAMWAYS OF POMPEII

Produced Cables of Wire Such as Are Supposed to Be of Modern Invention.

Ropes made of various kinds of fiber and leather are of very ancient date. Ropes of palm have been found in Egypt in the tombs of Beni-Hassan (about 3000 B. C.), and on the walls of these tombs is also shown the process of preparing hemp, says the Philadelphia Record.

The Bible tells us that Sampson was bound with ropes and that the spies sent by Joshua into Jericho were let down in a basket, presumably by means of a rope.

At Nimrud, Assyria, a carved slab showing the siege of a castle was found, on which a soldier was represented in the act of cutting a rope to which a bucket for drawing water from a well outside the castle walls was attached.

The wire rope is generally considered a modern invention, a product of modern skill, and it will surprise many to learn that its manufacture is really a rediscovered lost art.

Although the Assyrians practiced the art of wire beating, no evidence has been found to indicate that they used wire for making rope.

The excavations at Pompeii have, however, brought to light a piece of bronze wire rope nearly 15 feet long and about one inch in circumference. This rope is now in the museum Borbonico at Naples.

It consists of three strands laid spirally together, each strand being made up of 15 wires twisted together, and its construction does not, therefore, differ greatly from that of wire ropes made to day.

Pompeii was buried A. D. 79, 1,825 years ago, but how long wire ropes had then been known it is impossible to tell, though, judging by the knowledge shown in the construction, it may be safely concluded that they had been known for a considerable time.

As to the use of rope tramways, it is said that they were in use as early as 1644.

HEARSE NOT SEEN AT NIGHT

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

"Even in the daytime a hearse is a gloomy affair. But to run up against one at night is pretty sure to give the most jovial fellow alive a depressing turn. I know how it is myself. Accustomed as I am to handling hearses, I don't like to bump into one unexpectedly at a dark corner."

"Most men in the business feel the same way, therefore, we strive to be considerate. That we succeed remarkably well is apparent to anybody who will take the trouble to count the hearses he has seen out at night. These are so few that I'll wager the most confirmed gadabout cannot recall more than three or four of them."

Paris Educates Pups.

A school for dogs is the latest development of the educational movement. It has been established in Paris with the object of teaching, not letters, but politeness. The schoolroom is furnished with chairs, tables and rugs, to give the necessary "local color" to the surroundings. The dog pupils are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door and bows his farewell by bending his head to the floor.—Philadelphia Press.

Big Texas Hearses.

Undertakers Make it a Point to Have the Vehicle in Before Dark.

"Nobody gives us fellows credit for having a large business of some kind," said an undertaker, to a New York Times man, "but the fact is, we go to a good deal of trouble to safeguard the feelings of the general public. For one thing, we try never to keep our hearses in the street after dark."

"Of course, in the case of afternoon funerals and long distances we cannot avoid getting home late, but, even so, we make it a point to get under cover as soon as possible after nightfall. And we do that absolutely out of consideration for the public. By nine people out of ten the sight of a hearse in the street at night is taken as a sure sign of impending death and disaster."

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

Published Tuesday and Friday Mornings

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

SUBSCRIPTION $4 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.
Local reads 5 cents. 20 cents per line.
Special local 5 cents line each insertion.
Rates for standing advertisements furnished on application.
OFFICE 212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

—AUGUST 30, 1904—

Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JUDGE ALTON B. PARKER, of New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

HON. HENRY G. DAVIS, of West Virginia.

FOR CONGRESS,

HON. A. O. STANLEY, of Henderson county.

Electoral Ticket.

CLAUDE M. THOMAS, Bourbon.
LELAND B. CARTER, Anderson.

First District—C. C. Grapshaw, Livingston.
Second District—Forest Jennings, Hopkins.
Third District—Robert Harrison, Logan.
Fourth District—J. E. Zimmerman, Bullitt.
Fifth District—Herman D. Newcomb.
Sixth District—E. J. Barton, Pendleton.
Seventh District—S. Morris, Oldham.
Eighth District—W. Reed Ramey, Boyle.
Ninth District—C. L. Williams, Daviess.
Tenth District—A. A. Lee, Lincoln.
Eleventh District—R. C. Ford, Bell.

The Democratic convention of the Eleventh district nominated Geo. Stone, of Wayne county, for Congress.

The Vermont State election will be held September 6, and the Democrats are making an effort to reduce the Republican majority.

Marshall Field, of Chicago, is the heaviest individual taxpayer in the United States, being assessed on $40,000,000.

The Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias recognized the Rathbone Sisters as an auxiliary order by a vote of 66 to 49. The Pythian Sisterhood, which failed to secure recognition, will probably disband.

Three young men in Hardin county confessed to a charge of jumping on a moving train and were tried and fined by telephone, the justice never bringing them into his presence.

If any of our farmer friends have cattle afflicted with oesophagostomiasis infatam, we advise them to use the remedy recommended by the Missouri State Veterinarian—a drench made of three ounces of gasoline in a pint of sweet milk.

The Kentuckian can see no good to come from making the race question a political issue in the South. If Roosevelt wants to eat with negroes, it is merely a question of taste for him to decide. The race question will in time adjust itself, if the politicians will let it alone.

Chairman Ernst, of the Republican state central committee, has called a meeting of his committee for Sept. 5, at Louisville, to consider the Hunter-Edwards contest in the Eleventh district. W. W. Byrley, the district chairman, who put the knife to Edwards, is a member of the State committee.

Miss Edna Smith, a telephone girl in Louisville, saved the life of Dudley Smith, a two-year-old child, by snatching him from in front of a rapidly approaching street car, the fender of which grazed her skirts as she escaped with the boy. Further than being members of the same great Smith family, they are not related.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and proscribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says Gov. Durbin is tired of the Taylor issue in Indiana. It concludes a lengthy editorial with these words: "In justice to Governor Durbin it should be said that but for the fact he received this burden as a legacy from Governor Mount, he would have long ago surrendered Taylor to the Kentucky authorities. He feels that it is his duty to do so yet, and only share the responsibility because the politicians of his party demand that he shall carry his load of death. Governor Durbin rightly feels that he has nothing to do with the administration of justice in Kentucky, and it is his opinion that very soon Indiana must get rid of this disgrace by surrendering Taylor to Kentucky. Governor Durbin now feels that if there was ever an obstacle in the way of Taylor getting a fair trial in Kentucky it has long since passed away, and with it the reason for his detention in Indiana has disappeared. So there is still hope that the good name of Indiana will be vindicated before Governor Durbin retires from office.

The Henderson Gleaner, discussing Attorney General Hays' remarkable opinion about life insurance, says: "Two men have $1,000 each; one buys land and the other invests in a life policy. Why should the land pay taxes and the life go free. There is no sense or honesty in such a proposition. Let all be taxed alike." As we understand it, the opinion does not apply to the premium paid, but to the policy itself. For instance at $33 a thousand $1,000 would carry a $30,000 policy, and the Attorney General would tax the holder not on the premium, but the policy at its cash surrender value.

Salvatore Carasco, 22 years of age, a sergeant in the Filipino Constabulary at the World's Fair, killed himself for love of an American girl.

Carasco was a Batanzan Filipino, as the people from the Province of Batanzan are called, and had a wife in the Philippines. He left a letter to the woman for love of whom he killed himself. Maj. Haskell, who took possession of it, refuses to make it public.

Kentucky thoroughbreds won sweeping victories at the World's Fair Horse Show last week. Her saddle horses won five out of six first prizes, her trotters two out of three and her Morgans captured five ties. Great dissatisfaction is expressed at the award for saddle stallion four-year-old and over, in which the famous Glenbrook was beaten by Kentucky Peak.

IN SECOND ROUND

Jeffries Knocked Munroe Out at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 26.—Like the veriest amateur in the ring, Jack Munroe, of Butte, Mont., went down and out before Champion James Jeffries tonight in the second round. The man from the mining district made such an extremely sorry showing that the great throng in Mechanics' Pavilion roundly booed him as he protested to Referee Grane against the decision that had been given in favor of Jeffries.

MRS. OATES.

Good Woman of North Christian Died Friday.

Mrs. W. P. R. Oates died at her home near Barnes, formerly Pon. Friday last, of enlargement of the liver. She was 60 years of age and a member of the Baptist church. The interment took place at Hope-Well Cemetery Saturday.

Warning.

The public is hereby warned to exercise precaution in hiring servants and see that they have been successfully vaccinated and not exposed to smallpox. The number of cases in the country and near town make it important that all care be taken to prevent a further spread of the disease. J. B. Jackson, Secretary County Health Board.

World's Fair Accommodations.
Large, clean, elegantly furnished rooms, with bath, in private families. Best residence district, near Fair, at 50, 75, and $1.00 per day. Rates to parties.
H. L. McPherson.

ALL IS READY

For the State Guard Encampment at World's Fair.

Company D. Will Leave Here Thursday Night, September 1.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 29.—Practically everything is in readiness for the coming of the Kentucky State Guard to the Exposition next month. Harry G. Tandy, Quartermaster General and Acting Commissary General, was here today to arrange for rations for all the troops. The contracts he is making call for accommodations for 570 men for nine days each, three times during the month of September, a total of 1,610 men. Mr. Tandy is well pleased with the site selected for the Kentucky soldier boys. He says he will bring over a detail of men next Friday for the purpose of getting the site in readiness to pitch tents, etc.

This will be the first time the Kentucky militia have been paid for attending a camp of instruction. All are to have expenses paid and receive a daily salary amounting to $1.50 for privates, $1.75 for non-commissioned officers and so on up to about $9. Col. Mott Ayres, Paymaster General, will pay off.

The Government has appropriated $27,000, and the State is to supplement this with $14,000. Mr. Tandy is expecting some trouble in finding suitable horses for the officers. The sixteen head needed may be brought from Kentucky.

The Local Soldiers.

The following are the local officers and soldiers who will go. Capt. Nelson and eight men will go tonight and the others to-morrow night:—

Regimental and Battalion Staff.

C. A. Joutet Henry, Col. com'd'g.

Maj. E. B. Bassett.

Adj. C. H. Tandy.

Capt. B. G. Nelson.

Sergt. Maj. E. W. Ray.

Sergt. Maj. C. W. Head.

Q. M. Sergt. Perry Newman.

Company D, K. S. G.

Capt. Clifton Long.

Lieut. E. W. Clark.

Lieut. James Woodson.

1st Sergt. F. H. Merriam.

Com. Sergt. E. B. Courtney.

2d Sergt. Jas. E. Chappell.

3d Sergt. B. S. Winfree.

4th Sergt. Chas. Jackson.

5th Sergt. Ellis White.

Corp. J. C. Giles.

" Lawson Plack.

" A. H. Walker.

" S. Bassett.

" J. Reynolds.

Musicians K. West and J. A. Wall.

Artificer Dennis Wilkins.

Privates.

C. O. Adcock.

Burch Brumfield.

W. A. Bailey.

Ed. Boyd.

Claude Cason.

S. R. Cannon.

M. H. Clark.

Tom Cavanaugh.

Howard Courtney.

W. A. Garnett.

H. Chappell.

W. Halsey.

R. V. Hanbery.

Hardy Hadden.

R. E. Hille.

D. B. Hancock.

C. Ingle.

H. Johnson.

Matt Kelly.

Karl Keach.

George Keach.

Simpson Mayton.

J. C. Marquess.

M. Phillips.

Chas. Quarles.

Ted Reynolds.

Ray Ryan.

Wallace Roper.

P. C. Seaton.

W. C. Sumner.

Ernest Snodgrass.

L. Tate.

G. M. Wood.

Mrs. W. A. Radford, Mrs. Chas. F. Jarrett, Misses Elizabeth Garnett and Katie Manson, and Messrs. M. L. Levy and R. J. Garrott leave Monday night (Aug. 29) for San Francisco, Cal. They leave here in a special car and will visit numerous points of interest on the way.—Pembroke Journal.

AT THE FIRST SIGN Of Disfiguring Humors Use CUTICURA

Every child born into the world with an inherited tendency to torturing, disfiguring humors of the Skin and Scalp, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfigurement is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest, and most effective treatment available, viz.: the CUTICURA Treatment, consisting of warm baths with CUTICURA Soap, and gentle anointments with CUTICURA Ointment, the great Skin Cure. Cures made in childhood are speedy, permanent, and economical.

Send for the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and the Cuticura Book, (in form of Circulars) sent free, to the Cuticura Soap Co., 120 N. 3rd St., New York, N. Y. Cuticura Soap Co., 120 N. 3rd St., New York, N. Y. Cuticura Soap Co., 120 N. 3rd St., New York, N. Y.

A Convenient

Drug Store!

We are now in our new store, corner Main and Ninth Sts.,

Old First National Bank Building.

We appreciate very much the many new customers who have enlisted with us, and will take great pleasure in showing you through our new store.

Ray & Fowler,

Ninth and Main Sts.

PROTECTING THE ORPHAN

is one of the offices of a trust company. It acts as a guardian and safeguards the child's interests in every way. The little one's estate is carefully handled to its best interests.

The Planters Bank and Trust Company is prepared to undertake such a responsible duty at any time. It also acts as trustee, executor or administrator. It receives deposits subject to check at sight.

"If You Don't Buy Clothing from J. T. Wall & Co. You Don't Buy Clothing Right."

Hot Weather Prices In Our Clothing Department.

Watch this Space.

J. T. WALL & CO.,

One Price Store.

Sow New COLUMBIA,

The Wheat That Made 63 Bushels Per Acre.

All inquiries as to seed, prices, or any other information promptly answered. Respectfully,

JEFF J. GARROTT,
PEMBROKE, KY.

The State College of Kentucky, LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, horticultural, chemical, biological, mathematical, physical, normal science, classical, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, civil engineering, mining engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Each course study is organized under faculty general. The faculty number nearly fifty professors and instructors. Graduate from the several courses of study readily and excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation was 750. Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science. The State College of Kentucky, though bearing the title of "college," is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing in any proper sense university work. The completion of the college course for young women provides facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences including bath rooms and rooms for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity. An opportunity is thus afforded to them of a thorough education in classics, modern languages, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history and political economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky. For catalogue, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study, and terms of admission, apply to:

Jas. K. Patterson, Ph. D. L. L. D.

Or to D. C. FRAZEE, Business Agent, Lexington, Ky.

Fall Term Begins Sept. 5th, 1904.

Brame's Stable.

(SUCCESSOR TO GOLAY & BRAME.)

Livery and Feed Stable.

Cor. 7th and Virginia Streets.

For a nice cool drive, Up-to-date Rigs and courteous attention, give me a call. Hack service for the city-meeting all trains. Funeral and wedding work a specialty. Home Phone 1313 Cumberland Phone 23. I will be glad to have all my friends give me their patronage.

HOWARD BRAME, Hopkinsville, Ky.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

E. B. ROSS

Discusses The Tobacco Situation and Gives Counsel to Growers.Start With An Increased Attendance Yesterday.Total 694 of Which 382 Are Girls
And 292 Boys.The Public Schools opened yesterday with 692 children in attendance against 676 last year.The schools opened with only one new teacher, Miss Alice Seoby, who succeeded Mrs. R. P. Warren. The State adoption books are used, making almost a complete change in books.The school rooms and grounds have been put in tip-top condition and the schools start with bright prospects.The enrollment by rooms was as follows:

Clay Street Schools.
	Boys.	Girls.	Total.
No. 1.	30	27	57
" 2.	21	18	39
" 3.	17	22	39
" 4.	21	20	41
Annex	8	17	25
No. 9.	20	18	38
" 10.	21	19	40
" 11.	9	19	28
" 12.	9	17	26
High School.
No. 8.	8	12	20
" 7.	12	16	28
" 6.	5	13	18
" 5.	9	16	25
Virginia Street Schools.
No. 1.	9	18	27
" 2.	10	17	27
" 3.	19	19	38
" 4.	22	18	40
" 5.	12	15	27
" 6.	9	12	21
" 7.	10	15	25
" 8.	10	19	29
Total			692

To the Public.

About two years ago a new grocery store opened up in the Odd Fellow's building, under the name of M. E. Edmundson, with the choicest groceries, fruits and vegetables. We have been able, by liberal patronage of appreciative customers to make both ends meet. To them we return our sincere thanks and promise to do our very best in the future to retain their confidence.

The permanent success of any business depends upon the confidence and good opinion of the public. No business can succeed that makes dissatisfied customers. We work and plan to have all goods that we sell give absolute satisfaction in quality and price.

Now, just a word to those who voluntarily promised us at least a share of their patronage. While we have been somewhat disappointed in not having the pleasure of adding your names to our list of customers, we are still anxious to secure your grocery patronage. This true our stock is small, but it is always good and is kept clean and up-to-date, because we order fresh groceries every week to replace reduced stock. Come in and inspect our goods and our mode of doing business, and if you are satisfied we will certainly appreciate your patronage.

We also extend a cordial invitation to our country friends, many of whom perhaps will learn for the first time, on seeing this advertisement, that we are in the grocery business. Give us a trial order and we will guarantee to please you.

Fair prices, pure groceries, courteous treatment, straight-forward dealing and prompt delivery is the plan we have adopted for this store. Phone us—either phone us—and we will gladly supply your wants.

Respectfully,
M. E. EDMUNDSON.

To The Kentuckian.

I want to say that I am heartily in sympathy with "Cactus" in his effort to help tobacco growers. Though I cannot exactly agree with his view that warehouses are the only means by which competition and better prices may be secured for the growers.

Warehouses certainly are one of the important and powerful means by which growers may secure better prices, but not the only, or even the best means to secure fair and reasonable prices for their tobacco.

The best help and relief for the growers lies in themselves. The growers can really control prices in our great staple. The warehouses are, and always have been their great friends, and should be helped and encouraged in every way that is fair and legitimate, but farmers themselves can actually control prices.

For each year "the great staple" is actually in the possession of the growers, they can, if they only will, claim and demand remunerative prices for the results of their labor. Some man may say "But how?"

My answer is "Exactly the same way that other workers claim and get fair prices for their labor." The anthracite coal strikers of Pennsylvania claimed and got their reasonable demands. They simply "stood together as one man" and refused the wages offered them by the operators, and would not work for them until they got their demands.

They got the government of the United States and then J. P. Morgan, and finally the operators themselves, to agree to their terms. The battle was won. I do not then propose for us farmers to adopt all the methods of the strikers but we certainly can learn from them that it is essential for us to "stand together as one man."

I do not propose to go into the history of the great strike, but will simply state the fact that they stood together and finally obtained their just demands. It cost great suffering and denial but I think it was worth all this cost.

If tobacco growers will they can do likewise, but it is sure to cost them something. For us farmers simply to get together and "resolve and resolve" and then go home and "fall over one another" to get and take the first offer that the gentle buyer will give them will not do it.

They must have some of the grit of the strikers, who are generally poor men—poorer than farmers. The farmers must ask a fair price for their products, and hold firm until they get it.

If they cannot get a fair price, they had better "prize" and hold until they get it. Growers should help the warehouses and the warehouses should help the growers.

If tobacco growers will just stand together like some other working people do, they can win "with hands down" but just to get in some court house and "resolve and resolve" and then go home and sell out for the first offer, without regard to the interest of any one but themselves—they will not win.

Let us learn from other working people who contend for fair returns for the results of their labor.

There is a great fight being made now by the meat packers from which we might learn something. So far as I am able to learn, the employees of the meat packers of Chicago and

Omaha purpose to reduce the wages of their 50,000 employees from 18½ cents per hour to 17½ cents per hour, or about 8 cents per day; at the same time these same firms have forced down the price of cattle in the hands of farmers, and put up the price of meat to consumers.

This is a fair sample of what the trusts are doing, and of what tobacco growers may expect. The trust has forced down the price of tobacco nearly one half from what it used to be, and put up the price of manufactured tobacco.

The trust put up the price of beef to the consumers; they put down the price of cattle; and they propose to put down the wages of their employees. This great machine cuts three ways. It cuts the farmer, it cuts the employee, and it cuts the poor consumer.

It is a "meanly shame," as the song says. And if it is not stopped the men who are running this government at Washington will be hurled from power.

We tobacco growers may expect to get the same treatment. In fact, we are getting some of it now, and we will get more of it if we do not make a fight and "stand together" as other workers are doing.

This great tobacco trust, I see, is capitalized at $570,000,000. Think of that! That is enough to buy Congress and have laws made to suit themselves.

Let us do all we can to help Messrs. Ewing, Gaines and the warehouses make this fight. We can win if we are true to ourselves and to them. I will suggest that we have some means of deciding what is a fair price and then let him be "Anathema Maranatha" who sells for less.

It looks like each civil district could have a hard-headed, shrewd farmer who would examine each

Frankel's
BUSY STORELADIES READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT.

Just received, the handsomest line of Ladies Tailor-Made Skirts, in all the latest styles and materials. If you are going to St. Louis you cannot afford to be without one of FRANKEL'S Tailor-Made Skirts. If you want to be properly dressed at home, you must have one of FRANKEL'S Tailor-Made Skirts. We have them in any size, large or small; also Misses' Skirts.

LADIES TAILORED SUITS!
FOR FIVE DAYS ONLY.

Your last chance to secure one of these Suits at a Great Sacrifice. For five days only, beginning Tuesday, August 30th, we will sell $12.50 Ladies Tailor Made Suits at $5.00.

$15.00 to $18.50 Ladies Tailor Made Suits at $7.50.

$20 to $25 Ladies Tailor Made Suits at $10. $27.50 Tailor Made Suits $15.00.

$30.00 to $35.00 Ladies Tailor Made Suits at $15.00.

SOONER HITE

Jailed at Cadiz For a Lynching
Offense.Charged With Criminal Assault on a Small White Child.

Cadiz, Ky., Aug. 29.—"Sooner" Hite, a young negro man, was brought here yesterday and lodged in jail, charged with a criminal assault on the nine-year-old daughter of Mark Clark, a prominent farmer near Roaring Spring. Hite was employed as a farm hand by Mr. Clark, and the offense is alleged to have been committed early Sunday morning.

There is much feeling against the negro in the Roaring Spring neighborhood and there have been some threats of lynching.

CULLEY-REICKE.

Young Widow Weds In Paducah
—Done to the Fair.

Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride in Paducah, Mrs. Clara Riecke Burnett and Mr. Roy Culley were married. They left at once for St. Louis and will be at the Planters' hotel for a week or more, when they will return. The announcement of the wedding created a genuine surprise in Paducah social circles. Both have hundreds of friends who will extend congratulations. — News-Democrat. The bride is a sister of Mrs. J. E. Cooper, of this city.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

Two Young Men Crushed to Death
Near Madisonville.

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 27.—While return from Evansville on a freight train, Thomas Kane, of Dixons, and Leslie Wood, of Sebree, were killed. The mangled remains were found near Rankin, north of this city.

Kane was 18 years of age and lived on a farm, while Wood was employed at Sebree. They hopped their way to Evansville and told friends they were coming back the same way. It is not known how they were killed, as the crew knew nothing about them.

SECOND TIME

Medley Cansler Seeks to Cross
the River Styx.

Medley Cansler, who lives six miles west of Crofton, drank half an ounce of laudanum Saturday with suicidal intent. Dr. Croft was promptly summoned and succeeded in relieving him. About a year ago Cansler hanged himself in his barn and was almost dead when accidentally discovered and cut down. He is a farmer, 30 years of age, with a family.

Shot in Northern End.

The report reaches us that a young man by the name of James Oates was shot in the extreme northern end of Todd county last week. We are unable to learn the particulars of the affair. — Fairview Review.

Nominated For Circuit Judge.

Brinkley, Ky., Aug. 25.—D. W. Gardner was nominated in the Democratic primary for Circuit Judge for the Thirty-first judicial district.

FALL MILLINERY NOW READY FOR YOU.

The grandest line of quick selling, up-to-date Millinery ever shown in the city at a saving of 25 per cent. Our line of TAILORED HATS, including the "Gage" and 200 other styles, surpasses anything heretofore shown, both in beauty and low prices.

Pompons, Veilings, Accessories of Fall Millinery!

Two lots of Summer Hats, they must go or be packed away, we prefer that they should go at 25 per cent off; One lot, 79c, $2.00 and $2.50 hats in this lot; one lot 25c, $1.00 and $1.50 Baby Caps, soiled, at 25c. Here is the only place where you will find a complete line of Fancy Notions and Ladies Furnishings at prices that attract all buyers.

Miss S. B. Hooser & Co. TEMPLE OF FASHION, 105 South Main Street.

Bethel Female College, Hopkinsville, - Kentucky.

Select Home School for Young Ladies and Girls.

Primary, Preparatory and Collegiate Departments. Experienced teachers, graduates of best institutions. Boards limited to 50. Expenses moderate. Those seeking high and thorough instruction will please write for catalogue. The 51st session begins Sept. 1, 1904. Address

EDMUND HARRISON, A. M., L.L. D.,
PRESIDENT.

Where Health and Pleasure May be Found!

Dawson Springs, Kentucky

HOTEL - ARCADIA.

The waters are world wide in the celebrity. The hotel with a capacity to take care of 200 people, is situated on the Kentucky Division of the I. C. R. R., about 200 feet from the railroad station, surrounded by a beautiful maple grove. The old chalybeate well is in the yard, and the celebrated salts well about 100 yards from the hotel. The wells are owned by the Hotel Arcadia and the guests of the hotel have free access to them. An Italian Band will be in attendance during the entire season.

RATES.

$2 per Day! $10 per Week!
$35 per Month!

Children 10 years and under $5 per week!

Nurses and Maids $1 per day!

For further particulars apply to N. M. Holman & Co.

HOTEL ARCADIA, Dawson Springs, Ky.

SEEK THE ENJOYMENT OF THE GREAT HEALTH AND PLEASURE RESORTS.

In the Virginia Mountains

And at the Seashore.

ON THE LINE OF THE Chesapeake and Ohio R'y.

IDEAL RESORTS IN AN IDEAL COUNTRY

Where the waters are renowned for their curative properties, where the mountain scenery is magnificent and where the summer climate is unsurpassed, the days being mildly warm and the nights cool and refreshing, but twice hours' ride from Louisville, by either a day or night train, are situated the

VIRGINIA HOT SPRINGS, WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, WARM SPRINGS, ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, OLD SWEET SPRINGS, SWEET CHALYBEATE SPRINGS, RED SULPHUR SPRINGS, SALT SULPHUR SPRINGS, NATURAL BRIDGE AND OTHER WELL KNOWN HEALTH AND PLEASURE RESORTS.

Old Point Comfort, Virginia Beach, Ocean View, Atlantic City and Atlantic Coast Resorts.

The C. & O. R'y. reaches various Mountain and Seashore Resorts, at which very reasonable accommodations can be had. Full information, descriptive pamphlet, list of 100 summer homes in the mountains, at C. & O. ticket office, 27 Fourth Ave., Louisville, Ky., or W. A. WILGUS, S. P. A. C. & O. R'y., Hopkinsville, Ky.

A BUSINESS EDUCATION

Is absolutely necessary to the young man or young woman who would win success in life. This being conceded, it is of first importance to get your training at the school that stands in the very front rank—

THE BRYANT & STRATTON BUSINESS COLLEGE,
N. E. Cor. Second and Walnut Sts., LOUISVILLE, KY.

BOOK-KEEPING. Seven experienced teachers, each one a specialist in his line. Write for a beautiful book giving testimonials from graduates occupying prominent positions all over the United States—it will be mailed to you FREE. School open all year, students can enter at any time. E. J. Wright, Pres.

Vanderbilt Training School, Elkton, - Kentucky.

Healthful Location, Intelligent Community, Moral Surroundings, Trained Instructors. Terms moderate. For particulars address
J. M. FLETCHER and J. M. ROBERTS, Principals.

Kentucky Fair Dates.

The following are the dates fixed for holding the Kentucky fairs for 1904 as far as reported:

Shelbyville, August 23, 4 days.
Shepherdsville, Aug. 23, 4 days.
Springfield, August 24, 4 days.
Somerset, August 30, 4 days.
Nicholasville, August 30, 4 days.
Florence, August 31, 4 days.
Oregon, August 31, 4 days.
Elizabethtown, Sept. 6, 4 days.
Hartford, September 21, 4 days.

For Sale.

Two hundred acres of fine farming land, three miles west of Hopkinsville, on the Cadiz pike, 150 acres in grass and clover. Would sell 150 acres, or the whole 200 acres. Buildings all in good repair. Apply to J. G. Childress, Hopkinsville, Ky. R. E. D. No. 5.

Summer Excursion Rates.

Commencing May 25th and continuing until Sept. 30, the Illinois Central will sell round trip tickets as follows:

To Cerulean Springs $60.
To Dawson Springs $1.70.
To Crittenden Springs $1.25.
To Grayson Springs $1.50.
All tickets will be limited to Oct. 31st.

Marion and Wright Young, father and son, were sentenced to ten years' imprisonment each for murder at Williamsburg, Ky.

Eczema, scald head, hives, itchiness of the skin of any sort instantly relieved, permanently cured, Doan's Ointment. At any drug store.

Japanese are alleged to have lost ten thousand men in their opening attack on Port Arthur.

No such thing as "Summer Complaint" where Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is kept handy. Nature's Remedy very successful of the bowels.

An Iowa man forces his wife to witness his suicide.

Group instantly relieved. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Perfectly safe. Never fails. At any drug store.

Senator Hoar continues to hold his own.

Search the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

It develops that the killing in New York of Salvatore Bossuto had no connection with the Mafia.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Search the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Insurance men of the West who read the daily columns of insurance information in The Chicago Record-Herald keep pace with the times and are prepared for all emergencies and contingencies that grow in to the insurance business. The Chicago "West Insurance Men" is a compact form of the latest news in the insurance world, and is conducted by insurance men everywhere to be the best and most up-to-date report published by any newspaper in the United States. The Record-Herald does not copy its information from insurance journals, but secures it first hand from managers, agents and companies, and by telegraph from its own special correspondents, by telephone and in special cable dispatches from abroad. The New York service of The Record-Herald's insurance department is equalled by no other paper. In fact, the Record-Herald is the only daily newspaper that gives insurance men the first information daily on every important event in the insurance business.

Herbine

Readers of this more fluid and than helps the body to digest its food, prompts relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches, and over-indulgence in food and drink. Herbine acts quickly, a dose after meals will bring the patient into a good condition in a few days.
G. L. Caldwell, Apt. M. K. and T. R. K. Checotah, Ind. Ter. writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with indigestion and nervous headache. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

MARRIED IN NEW YORK.

Mr. Harvey Watterson and Miss Alice Burrows.

Raven, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Harvey Watterson, the youngest son of Henry Watterson, was married near here to Miss Alice Burrows, the daughter of the late well-known engineer. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Burrows, an uncle of the bride. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Watterson went to Saratoga. Young Watterson is a lawyer, connected with the firm of Hatch & Debevoise, 40 Wall street.

Stop That Cough!

When a cough, a tickling or irritation in the throat makes you feel uncomfortable, take Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Don't wait until the disease has gone beyond control. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, 354 West St., Salt Lake City, Utah, writes: "After thinking Ballard's Horehound Syrup the best medicine for coughs and colds. We have used it for several years; it gives us immediate relief, is very pleasant and gives perfect satisfaction." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Floridan Leaps from Eads Bridge

St. Louis, Aug. 25.—A man supposed from papers found in a coat left lying on the bridge to be Frank McConick of Winter Haven, Fla., committed suicide today by leaping from the Eads bridge into the Mississippi river. A watchman saw the man climb to the railing, but not in time to prevent him jumping.

Cures Scatica.

Rev. W. Riley, L. L. D., New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application giving my first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Miss Pattie L. Word.

The Times Dispatch, Richmond, Va., Aug. 21, 1904, says: Miss Pattie Lou Word, of Christian county, Ky., daughter of the late Benjamin H. Word, of Buckingham county, died in this city yesterday morning at 1 o'clock. The interment will take place in the family burying ground.

The Blind May See.

Dr. D. Garfield's Eye Remedy cured hundreds in Tennessee who were nearly blind with sore eyes, granulated eyelids, watering, inflamed eyes, and all kinds of eye troubles. Many had scums or pterygiums on their eyes, could not see their way; were given up by doctors as incurable after paying out hundreds of dollars. Call for free sample, and you will be convinced that you can be cured. No matter how severe your case, no one has ever been cured, address Dr. D. Garfield, 609 North Summer Street, Nashville, Tennessee.

At Times Display Much Bravery, But Are Not Keen of Comprehension.

That the Cossacks are formidable antagonists cannot be denied. There is, in fact, but one thing that can be said against them, says the Review of Reviews. They are ignorant, 90 per cent. being unable to read or write. The Cossack has but two ideas—that of the force and power of his horse and arms, and that of blind, implicit subordination. He does not think. He has no initiative. He is not resourceful. His scouting is merely a matter of blundering along, in sufficiently large numbers to stumble on what he is seeking. A dozen intelligent scouts could cover as much ground as a regiment of Cossacks. But he can fight. It was the Cossack who ended the brilliant career of Charles XII, of Sweden. It was the Cossack, as much as the terrible winter of 1812, who rolled back Napoleon from Moscow. It was the Cossack who retrieved the honors of the Russian arms in the Turkish war of 1877. The eyes of the military profession are turned toward Manchuria, where he is now to be pitted against the soldier of Japan, the parvenu among military powers. The latter is deficient in cavalry, but has a light infantry admirably organized, capable of marches of almost incredible length and swiftness, intelligent, crafty and animated by a patriotism that is almost a religion.

WERE GETTING THE ACCENT

Americans Took This Englishman Around to Get Onto His Style of Speech.

"You know you Americans are a strange people," said the Englishman.

The American clubman demurred, says the New York Times. "You ought to back up such a statement as that," he said. "What peculiar experience have you had to cause you to think we're strange people?"

"Well, you know, it's this way," said the Englishman. "I've only been in this country a month, and during that time I've been winced and dined in the most generous way imaginable. Why, I've been taken to all the best clubs here in New York, I've been taken to the theater, I've gone driving, and all that sort of thing, and I never could pay for anything. Sometimes the men who took me around were mere acquaintances. I thought it was the good fellowship that I used to hear about as so in evidence in America. But, you know, last night at the theater I asked the men with me if there wasn't some string to all this generosity, what it was all about anyway? And what do you suppose their bloomin' answer was?"

"He said they were taking me around so as to get on to my way of talking. Now if that isn't bloomin' silly and strange!"

Couls, Eczema, Itching Humors, Pimples and Caruncles—Costs Nothing to Try.

B. B. B. (Bottanic Blood Balm) is now recognized as a certain and sure cure for eczema, itching skin, humors, scabs, scales, watery blisters, pimples, itching bones or joints, boils, carbuncles, prickling pains in the skin, old catarrhs, sores, ulcers, etc. Bottanic Blood Balm thins internally, cures the worst and most deep seated cases by enriching, purifying and vitalizing the blood, thereby giving a healthy blood supply to the skin. Bottanic Blood Balm is the only cure to stay cured, for these awful, annoying skin troubles. Heals every sore and gives the rich glow of health to the skin. Builds up the broken down body and makes the blood red and nourishing. Especially advised for chronic, old cases that doctors, patent medicines and Hot Springs failed to cure. Drugists, R. L. To prove that B. B. B. cures, please send your name and address by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe trouble and free advice will be sent in sealed letter.

Kuklux activity is reported from Colly, Ky.

The State Board of Election Commissioners is in session at Frankfort.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought
Search the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher
William Weightman, the noted Philadelphia chemist, is dead.

SAYS

"A light purse is a heavy curse." Sickness makes a light purse. THE LIVER is the seat of nine tenths of all disease.

Tutt's Pills

go to the root of the whole matter, thoroughly, quickly, safely and restore the action of the LIVER to normal condition.

Give tone to the system and solid flesh to the body.

Take No Substitute.

ELECTION BOARD.

Lucian Cravens Reappointed as Democratic Member.

Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Hopkinsville, Republican, and Charles B. Post, Democrat, composing the State Board of Election Commissioners met at Frankfort Aug. 25 in the Court of Appeals room to appoint the County Boards of Election Commissioners. The board for Christian is as follows: L. R. Davis, Rep., sheriff; A. H. Anderson, Rep., and L. C. Cravens, Dem. The Republican State Chairman submitted a list for every county. His recommendation for Christian was C. O. Prowse, but for some reason Judge Anderson was appointed.

A CASE OF IT.

Many More Like It in Hopkinsville.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Hopkinsville. It is very easy to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such conclusive evidence.

J. B. Cravens, blacksmith, of 320 West 19th street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills practically gave me a new back. For three or four years a kidney trouble had caused me the most constant and severe aches and pains through my back and compelled me to constantly complain in more than one way. When arising in the morning I felt sore and lame, and had to make a great effort to dress myself. The trouble grew worse and a weakness of the kidneys set in which caused me a great deal of annoyance. Willing to try just anything I purchased Doan's Kidney Pills as soon as I saw them advertised locally and got a box at Thomas & Trahern's drug store, and the trouble with the kidney secretions is completely relieved. The experiment has given me a great deal of faith in Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

Helen Keller at the Fair.

Preparations are being made to make "Helen Keller Day," October 18, at the St. Louis fair, an unusual demonstration. It is the first time in the history of any American fair that any special day has been set apart for an individual. All nations will do honor to this remarkable woman, whose emancipation from misfortunes has no peer in the whole century. Miss Keller's autobiography, "The Story of My Life," has been translated into seven languages, and is now being translated into two more. It has been called the most remarkable human document of the Nineteenth century.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House El Reno, O. T., writes, June 1, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

The largest turbine vessel ever built was launched at Belfast, Ireland.

Bardeck Blood Bitters gives a man a clear head, an active brain, a strong, vigorous body—makes him fit for the battle of life.

Two Russian ships encountered mines in the harbor of Port Arthur and one was sunk.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought
Search the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Here and There.

Wanted—Help in dress-making. Mrs. P. C. Richardson, 111 9th St. Rooms for rent, 917 S. Virginia St. Cumberland telephone 574.

Dr. E. N. Fruit, Dentist, office over City Bank, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Robert Parrott, who discovered the rich Parrott mine at Butte, Mont., is dead.

Peter Sells, the well known showman, was stricken with paralysis at Columbus, O.

Rev. H. D. Friend, of Bowling Green, preached at Hille's chapel, Sunday morning and evening.

Early tobacco is being cut in some parts of the county. The quality is better than last year.

Sam Street has resigned his place as telegraph operator for M. D. Boales, the broker, and will return to Huntsville, Ala.

The attendance at the World's Fair last week was 125,000 in excess of any other week since the opening of the exposition.

The premiums won by Kentucky owners in the first four days of the World's Fair live stock show amount to $4,905.

The Baker farm at Gracy has been rented to Messrs B. B. Nance and J. W. Crenshaw.

C. H. Layne is back in the livery business, at Layne & Moseley's stand on 9th street. First class rigs at any time. Feed and sale stable in connection.

Mr. Clifton Harned, our mail carrier, and his brother, Clarence, have moved to Hopkinsville, where they will open up a livery and feed stable—Fairview Review.

John C. Lansdowne was stabbed to death at Covington, by John Lieberth, it is alleged, Lieberth mistaking him for his brother, Wallace Lansdowne.

Dr. J. B. Jackson and Mr. E. W. Henderson are extending the Forbes-Anderson private sewer out Main street and will connect with it.

John Long found a pearl in a mussel shell, near Henderson, that he sold for $400. It weighed 35 grains Troy.

A woman who came to Calloway county and married Dan Rye, of New Concord, a month ago, as a result of a matrimonial agency, left last week and went back to her people.

Judge Geo. V. Triplett has no opposition for the short term as county judge of Davies county. He is not a candidate for reelection for the full term.

The United Confederate Veterans will have a reunion at Earlington, September 21 and 22. The G. A. R. Veterans of Earlington will be especially invited and entertained at the reunion. Some noted speakers will be on hand.

GINSENG culture is the great-est money maker on earth! A plot 10x100 ft. makes a $10,000 garden. Work is light, pleasant, and exceedingly profitable. I started 4 years ago, have sold $500 worth. You can do as well. I tell you how for $5. I expect a letter from you, write me today. T. H. SURROUS, 1300 Sherwood ave., Louisville, Ky.

Dr. J. E. Fogartie, of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, preached the sermon for the last union service of the summer Sunday night, at the Methodist church. The regular evening service will be resumed at all of the city churches next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Otto Lander, who has been in the U. S. army for three years, has been honorably discharged and has returned home. Henry Foster, another Hopkinsville boy, will also get his discharge about the first of October.

DR. EDWARDS,

SPECIALTY:

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Test Made for Glasses.

Phoenix Bldg., Hopkinsville, Ky.

It's a gentleman's whiskey, a pure delicious beverage and a grand appetizer. Don't forget the name, "I. W. HARPER" whiskey. The kind your grandfather used. Sold by W. M. Long, Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

WON TWO GAMES.

Locals Find Their Long Lost

Rabbit's Foot,

Clarksville Sent Home Covered

With Sore Spots—Vincennes Here.

Hopkinsville played in hard luck in the series of six games with Clarksville, winning only one game, the last, Thursday and Friday the visitors won with great ease, clearly out-playing the Browns. Friday Pettifer was in the box and pitched a good game, holding them down to 5 hits, but the locals could not hit Willis' balls. Even the best batters struck out again and again and only two hits were made. One of these was by "Smiley" Anderson, the new third-baseman, who parked the ball over left field and made a home run. This was the only score made, the Clatsvilles getting 5. Violet was out of condition and Dr. Lackey acted as umpire.

Saturday's game was a pleasant surprise to the fans, who expected to see it made six straight. The Browns started out like they meant business and made a run in the first inning. Violet was still abed and "Foxey" Morris was put in as umpire. Ferrell and Moore for Hopkinsville and Collins and Pett for Clarksville were the batters. The locals set such a fast pace that the Clatsvilles soon realized that it was to be a close game and they began to best over every decision made, and finally, when Morris called safe a runner who made a slide for the home plate, they demanded his removal. This was in the fifth inning and Dr. Lackey umpired the rest of the game. In the eighth inning the game was tied 5 to 5 and in the ninth the Browns lost a fine chance to score, Marre striking out with the bases full and it took three extra innings to get the necessary score. In the twelfth inning Reucy, of the Clarksville team, put a ball over right field fence so close to the foul line that they claimed it to be a fair ball and the whole team got mad when the umpire decided against them. "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." In the last half of the inning they went to pieces and everybody hit Collins. Anderson brought in the needed score, with bases full and one out. The score was 10 to 5 with 15 hits on each side, and 1 error for Clarksville and 5 for Hopkinsville.

The Clarksville boys accepted defeat with very poor grace.

Hopkinsville played Vincennes at Paducah Sunday and won by 11 to 5. Alexander and Moore were the batters for the Browns and the Reds had two batteries, Goodwin and Taylor and Lemon and Wilkinson. Lemon was hurt and had to retire. Poppumped and up to the fourth inning the Browns were shut out 4 to 0. When they caught on to Goodwin's balls they batted him all over the field, making 8 runs in one inning. Taylor was then put in and tried to stop the tide but without success. The score was 11 to 5. Hopkinsville made 13 hits and Vincennes 8. The Vincennes team is here for two more games, one yesterday and the other today. Then Henderson will come here for three games, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Standing of Clubs to Aug. 28.

	P.	W.	L.	Pc.
Cairo	104	67	37	644
Paducah	105	58	44	562
Clarksville	101	53	48	524
Hopkinsville	104	45	59	432
Vincennes	105	45	59	428
Henderson	104	43	61	413

Monday's Schedule.

Paducah at Cairo.
Vincennes at Hopkinsville.
Henderson at Clarksville. Double header.

On The Fly.

Bomar leaves for Louisville tomorrow, having been sold to Tebeau for $200.

Brady, who was out of the game two or three days, went to Paducah Sunday and is back in left field this week.

Cairo's champion team has been disposed of for next season. New York Americans get Holycross; Chicago National, Harvey and Richards; Pittsburg National, Rutledge, Haas and Wilder; Cincinnati National, Hughes and Crangle; St. Louis National, Kling; St. Louis American, Bittrolf; Chicago American, Conner; Philadelphia American, Shannon.

Clarksville undoubtedly has one of the best teams in the League. They will probably quit second only to Cairo.

Pettifer, Ketter and Bomar spent Sunday here. Anderson returned to Clarksville. He was not signed, but was only playing third while Brady was out.

Alexander, who has played in hard luck lately, won at Paducah Sunday against two pitchers, one of them the brag Goodwin, Vincennes' best twirler.

A RARE CHANCE

For Our Farmer Friends of Christian County.

You and your neighbors are cordially invited to visit our factory at Kinney Station, Tenn., on Thursday Sept. 1st, and let us show you how fertilizer is made, and convince you that what we sell is as good as can be put up. Now there is a chance you should not miss, for it will give you an insight as to what should be put into good fertilizer. There will be a free barbecue on the grounds and plenty to eat for all. Come everybody and bring your neighbors with you. This is a chance you should not miss to learn something about good fertilizer. Your friends,

Singer & Johnson,
Kinney Station, Tenn.,
Planters' Hardware Co., agents at Hopkinsville, Ky.

NEW MILLINERY STORE

Will be Ready to Begin Business Next Monday.

The new millinery store to be opened in the Phoenix hotel corner in a few days by Campbell & Co. will be devoted strictly to millinery goods, such as patterns, finished hats, ready-to-wear hats, veils, etc. The store will be under the management of Miss Francis Campbell, assisted by Miss Mary Barbour. The store room has been handsomely furnished with oak furnishings and will be the best lighted and most desirably located store room in the city.

Miss Campbell has had much experience with Mrs. Keegan and others and thoroughly understands the demands of the Hopkinsville trade. She is in close touch with buyers in the largest cities and is prepared to sell at prices that cannot fail to please.

The store expects to be ready for business Monday Sept. 5.

Notice to Insurance Agents.

I hereby notify all life insurance agents that I have taken a policy with The Equitable Life Assurance Society, through their agent, Mr. J. B. Perkins. I am perfectly satisfied with my policy and hereby request all life insurance agents to drive on by my gate and not under any circumstances talk life insurance to me.

G. W. Buchanan,
Howell, Ky.

Administrator's Sale.

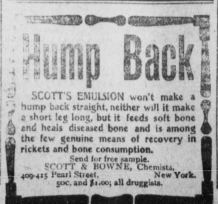

We will, as administrators of J. S. Williams, deceased, sell at his late residence, at Huffman's Mill, on Thursday, Sept. 8, one lot of cattle, hogs, six good work mules, two horses, farming utensils, hay, corn, and a lot of lumber.

E. T. and W. A. Williams,
Adm's J. S. Williams, dec'd.

Athenaeum Resumes.

The September meeting of the Athenaeum will be held at Hotel Latham Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Papers will be read by Capt. Clifton Long, Judge Joe McCarroll and Mr. Chas. M. Meacham.

Two Marion county, Ark., boys, Robert and Wyly Burns, captured brides in Benton county, Tenn., under daring circumstances. These two brothers married two sisters, Misses Myrtle and Sadie Moore. The brides are 16 and 17 years old, respectively.

Pump Back
SCOTT'S EMULSION won't make a hump back straight, neither will it make a short leg long, but it feeds soft bone and builds diseased bone and is among the few genuine means of recovery in rickets and bone consumption.
Send for free treatise.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists,
409-415 Third Street, New York.
Sole and prices all druggists.

Personal Gossip.

Mrs. W. S. Harned is visiting in Cincinnati.

Mr. J. W. Mansfield has returned from Asheville, N. C.

Mr. W. H. Eggleston has returned to Louisville.

Mrs. E. P. Fears and daughter, Lucille, are at Dawson.

Mrs. Geo. E. Gary has returned from a week's stay at Dawson.

Mr. C. T. Edmundson has returned from St. Louis.

Mr. H. D. Holton, of Murray, came up last week to make a visit.

Mr. W. A. Wilgus and Henry Wallace, Jr., returned from New York Friday.

Miss Annie Smithson has returned from a three months' visit to Virginia.

Mrs. R. C. Hardwick, who is now in Holland, will sail on the 7th and arrive home about Sept. 17.

Mrs. Hughes, of Springfield, Ky., has returned home after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Ray.

Mrs. Jno. C. Day and daughter, of Louisville, have returned home after a visit to Mrs. Geo. D. Dalton.

Thomas and Joseph Kelly, the young sons of Mr. M. D. Kelly, will attend St. Mary's College, near Lebanon, Ky.

Miss May Humphries has returned home, after spending her vacation in the country with her grandparents, Mr and Mrs T. L. Yonts.

Misses Elizabeth and Laura Little, of Owensboro, returned home Saturday after a visit to Mrs. Joe McCarroll.

Dr. J. M. Ferguson, the newly appointed Second Assistant physician at the Western Asylum, arrived yesterday and entered upon his duties.

MONEY WON

First honors at The Gun Tournament at Cerulean.

Prowse For Third Time Captures The Club Medal—Official Scores.

The annual tournament of the Hopkinsville Gun Club at Cerulean Springs Thursday and Friday was participated in by more than 30 shooters. Some dropped out after discovering that they were in too fast company. The crack shot of the tournament was Mr. Harold Money, who broke 337 of 350 targets. Mr. E. Brady, Newbern, Tenn., won the medal to amateurs, with a score of 311. Mr. Lee Moody, Bessemer, Ala., was second with 309.

Mr. Chas. O. Prowse for the third time won the club medal with a score of 294, and it becomes his personal property.

Capt. Pool's courtesies to the visitors was appreciated. He spared nothing to make the occasion pleasant for all.

The official score of the two days' shooting was as follows:

	Shot at.	Broke
Money	350	337
Brady	350	328
Moody	350	311
Mercer	350	309
Hillman	350	302
Meaders	350	295
Prowse	350	294
Moss	350	287
Woodard	350	263
Hansbro	285	216
Starling	290	201
Wadlington	305	186
Glenn	290	159
Nail	205	154
Barton	175	148
Gant	175	133
Curry	115	85
Jones	135	79
Page	95	71
Halloman	105	69
Moore	75	49
Gates	65	35
Porter	65	31
Smith	35	29
Dart	35	25
Chaates	40	27
Turner	45	22
Glass	35	21
McCarley	25	20
George	40	17
Morrow	20	7
Burrow	15	6

Five thousand purse and bag makers in Greater New York have been ordered to strike.

We Offer This Season.

The same old time-tied brand of Fertilizers that have produced the best results for fifteen years on Christian county lands

Armour,

Horseshoe,

Homestead and

Ox Brand!

The farmer cannot afford to experiment with new fertilizer formulas if he has found one that suits his soil as these do

EMPIRE DRILLS

Are the best. Both Hoe and Disc, with and without fertilizer attachment. Come and see them

Forbes M'fg. Co.